Chair Greg Larson called the meeting to order and introductions were made.

Minutes from June 8, 2010 were approved as presented. (M/S/C)

Fundraising stats from NAR and NDAR were reviewed.

Awards for per capita and percent of participation for 2010 investments will be given after the final NAR deadline of October 31. The current status was reviewed.

Discussion was held and goals for 2011 were set as follows:

- Per member: $30
- Member % participation: 75% (focus)
- Major Donors: 1%
- Capital Club members: 5%
- 99 Club members: 15%
- Fund completion date: October 31, 2011

Larry Louser gave a report from the NAR RPAC Trustees reviewing stats and goals.

Thank you to the Grand Forks Association for a nice RPAC Fundraiser event at the convention. Nearly $13,000 was raised that night for ND and SD RPAC and Issues.

The Fargo Moorhead Association is looking for support for the issue on the November ballot for permanent flood protection planning.

It was noted that anyone interested can give to Issues as well as RPAC for Major Donors as well as other amounts.

Special thanks was given to Tish Johnson for the many hours involved in making the quilt that she donated for the convention fundraiser.

The Broker Involvement program was reviewed. ND needs 50 offices to meet the national goal and earn the President's Cup.

A video from CNN was viewed. It was a report on Powerhouse Lobbyists, which included an interview with Lawrence Yun, NAR Economist. The link to the video will be emailed to the committee and posted on NDAR's Facebook page.

NAR is hosting a webinar on October 7 that all committee members are encouraged to watch.

The challenge for 100% RPAC participation from all committees is very close to being complete. Only one member from this committee has not given at this point.

Larry Louser challenged the committee to up their investment for next year. He pledged to sustain his Golden R and give to the President's Circle after the NAR convention in New Orleans.

Greg Larson thanked the committee for a successful year.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Moni Krantz, Executive Assistant
